

Is that W. for Welcome?

Elliott's Hardware offers former President George W. Bush greeter position at Dallas store

February 5, 2009

Mr. George W. Bush
Dallas, TX 75229

Dear President Bush,

Welcome back home to Dallas and the Lone Star state!

You must be carefully weighing your options as you settle back into life as a regular citizen. With that in mind, we'd like to invite you to join the Elliott's Hardware team as a greeter at our Maple Avenue store.

If you're not familiar with Elliott's Hardware, we're a local, independent hardware store that's been serving the hardware needs of North Texas since 1947. We're known for our friendly, helpful customer service and for our unbeatable selection of hard-to-find items. And as for our greeters, well, they're legendary.

We're confident that your experience working in your own family business, as well as your people skills developed throughout years of meeting with foreign dignitaries would make you an excellent candidate for the position.

Furthermore, like you, many of our greeters are retired from the corporate world, so we're sure you'll have no trouble making new friends.

Some of the benefits of the position include:

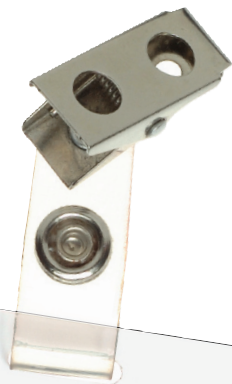

- A flexible, part-time schedule (we understand you have a weekend place in Crawford)
- An opportunity to keep up on your people skills while getting a chance to visit one-on-one with the citizens of Dallas
- Ample parking for you and your security detail, as well as a coffee and snack bar, and more than 100,000 hardware items for them to browse during your shifts
- Close to home (the commute's a mere seven miles. You could even ride your mountain bike to work)
- A generous employee discount (might come in handy for your "Honey-Do" list, or for parts and maintenance on the new gate!)
- Friendly, knowledgeable co-workers eager to discuss any projects you may be tinkering with around the house or the ranch.

We think you'll find working with us much less stressful than your last job. (And we're pretty sure Mrs. Bush wouldn't mind getting you out of the house for a few hours, too.)

Please give us a call or stop by the store at your convenience and fill out an application. We'll even let you try it out for a day to see how you like it.

Sincerely,

Kyle R. Walters
